Stock Prices Slump Off on Liquidation of Steel Holdings.

| New York, June 21.—Stocks, almost without exception, started higher at the opening of the stock market this morning. New York Central advanced $\frac{1}{3}$, Union Pacific and Pennsylvania were unchanged, Brooklyn Rapid Transit up $\frac{1}{3}$, A. T. & S. F. 1934, 1

When the formality of ratification by the Bolivian congress is completed there will become effective a contract whereby National City Bank interests and Speyer & Co. will furnish $14,600,000 for the construction, ownership, and operation of new railroad lines for the Bolivian government, which will contribute $12,165,000 to the enterprise, and will exempt the road from all national, state, and municipal taxation for twenty-five years.

to the enterprise, and will exempt the road from all national, state, and municipal taxation for twenty-five years.

The $1,000,000 of new stock of the Diamond Match Company, which was issued not long ago, has been listed on the New York Stock Exchange. The purpose of the increase in the capital stock of the company was to provide funds not only for adding to the manufacturing facilities of the corporation, but for liquidation of a debt incurred by the purchase of lands and the erection of plants in California.

One of the largest contracts that the American Bridge Company ever received was announced yesterday, when the final papers were signed calling for 27,000 tons of structural steel for Pennsylvania terminal on Church street, New York, which is to handle the downtown passenger business of the tunnel lines of that railroad. All this steel will be fabricated in the American Bridge shops, and the work will require several months.

It will require a large amount of money to rehabilitate the plants of the Corn Products Refining Company of the quire several months.

It will require a large amount of money to rehabilitate the plants of the Corn Products Refining Company, and it was yesterday declared that the dividend on the preferred stock will not be raised to the regular 7 per cent rate until the physical condition of the company's properties and earnings warrant it. Since the first of the year the earnings have fallen off considerably, owing to the high price of corn, which now costs at the rate of $350,000 a month, or $4.200,000 a year more than it did six months ago.

Net earnings of the United States Steel Corporation for 1996 are being estimated at $145,000,000 and this is not regarded as extravagant by those in a position to know. The increase in earnings will be due to an increase in production, although the range of prices is lower. In 1902 the earnings of the organization aggregated $132,000,000 on a production of something in excess of $,000,000 tons of finished and semi-finished steel, while this year the production.

FOUGHT ITALIAN WHO ATTEMPTED TO ASSAULT HER

northeast, this afternoon, and dragged into the bushes by an Italian railroad laborer who tried to assault her. Policeman C. H. Bradley, of the Tenth laborer who tried to assault her.

Policeman C. H. Bradley, of the Tenth district, arrested Samuel Petrallo, who lives near the town hall in Brookland. D. C., and locked him up on a charge of making the assault. Later Mrs. Fox saw him and identified him as the man she struggled with for half an hour. Bradley says the Italian confessed his guilt. Mrs. Fox says she went to make a visit at the home of her brother, John Busher, Fourth and Franklin streets northeast, and was on her way to that place when she was accosted by the Italian. She says that he struck her several times and also choked her.

Weakened by the encounter she sank to the ground. The Italian dragged her roughly over the muddy road and the car tracks and finally threw her into the high bushes and weeds opposite the Catholic University grounds. After lying motionless for a few moments, the woman regained sufficient strength and grit to make a demonstration against her would-be assailant. She says she struggled with him, scratching his face and arms and screaming at every breath. When the Italian saw a Brookland bound car he evidently thought the attention of the crew would be attracted by the woman's screams and desisted in his efforts to do her further harm.

Striking her a vicious blow in the face he felled the woman to the ground and then ran east on Michigan avenue, into the town of Brookland, where he lived. The woman gathered up her hat, umbrella, and pocketbook, and followed the Italian at a safe distance. At the Baltimore and Ohlo railroad crossing below Seventh street and Michigan avenue northeast, she met Policeman Bradley and informed him of the affair. Bradlev went to a shoemaker's shop on Ninth street northeast, between Michigan avenue and Newton street, where he questioned all of the men. Petrallo answered the description perfectly and was taken into custody. As soon as Mrs. Fox saw him she said, "That is the man."

The prisoner was asked if he was guilty and replied in the affirmative.

The prisoner was asked if he was guilty and replied in the affirmative. When taken to the Tenth precinct station he told the story of the assault which was identical with that told by Mrs. Fox.

N. Y. STOCK MARKET DULLNESS REIGNED

Mitchell Mining Traded in Large Blocks at Low Prices Only Event.

The new arrangement of the board or which the quotations are registered, which was devised by Secretary Hume to bring the usually active stocks at the earlier part of the call, did not produce any access of interest at today's session, of the stock exchange. In fact, with the possible exception of Mitchell Mining, which was dealt in to the extent of 600 shares, the meeting relapsed into a state of somnolence that was productive of nothing more than a desire to see what the "other fellow" was prepared to do, and then go home again. The orders of all kinds were so very limited that the total amount of trading hardly reached to 800 shares of stock and but $4,000 in bonds.

Railway preferred was second in the slender trading and broke through the 87 level, which is pretty near to low record since the upward movement begán about two years. The common was entirely let alone and the bid allowed to fall away from that of yesterday.

In every respect the market was representative of a day in mid-summer, and caused some comment at the early starting of the dull season.

The directors of the Central National The directors of the Central National Bank at their meeting today voted to increase the regular semi-annual dividend from 5 to 6 per cent, making the annual rate at 12 per cent. They also voted to carry $50,000 to the surplus account from the undivided profits, which makes a total surplus of $550,000, together with their capital of Woodbridge Ferris Declares Michigan's Democratic Voters Showed Too Much Indifference at Primaries.

SAGINAW, Mich., June 21.—Woodbridge N. Ferris, of Big Rapids, who was nominated for governor on the Democratic ticket at the recent primarles, has declined the nomination, in a letter to John T. Winship, chairman of the Democratic State central committee.

Mr. Ferris' letter of declination places the responsibility for his action upon the voters and their indifference to existing conditions, especially the Democratic apathy at the primaries recently.

Mr. Winship is now in Clare conferring with Secretary Canfield, of the State committee, and preparing to call a meeting of that body to take proper action.

He is the second oldest man in the department in point of service, having entered the ranks in 1862, when the police department was only a few months old. Throughout all his years of service he has never been before the trial board, but has been as regular as the clock at his work and as faithful as he could be.

Detectives at headquarters never looked at their watches at 9 o'clock in the morning, noon, 1, and 4 o'clock in the afternoon, for Gorman reported for work on the first stroke of 9, went to lunch at noon, returned promptly at 1, and put on his hat and coat and left at 4 o'clock.

Throughout the past several weeks he has been on leave of absence, and confined to his home on Massachusetts avenue northwest. Mr. Gorman is well into the seventies, and his associates say they think it only fair that he should be tendered some testimonial, and they know of no better way than for Major Sylvester to promote and retire him. Major Sylvester says Gorman's long service appeals to him, and he will probably recommend that the faithful policemay be promoted before retirement.
